

Randy Roberts
4210 E. Airport Road
Urbana, IL 61802
(217) 328-7529

May 19, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is intended to recommend without reservation the services of Mr. Amindavar, whom I have been acquainted with for over seven years now. I first met Mr. Amindavar when he was assisting his employer in demonstrating several oriental carpets in my home. He came across as being very professional and eager to please.

During my subsequent (and frequent) visits to the rug gallery in which Mr. Amindavar was employed, I came into constant contact with him, and was continually impressed with his vast knowledge on the subject of oriental rugs, and his willingness to share this with me as well as others. Being himself from Iran, I benefited immensely from his personal experiences and family history in the rug business. Most important, I have always been impressed by his unfailing honesty and integrity. As a result, Mr. Amindavar was personally responsible for assisting me in acquiring the majority of my current rug collection, which numbers about fifty pieces.

It will come as no surprise that our business relationship quickly blossomed into a permanent friendship. Mr. Amindavar served as a catalyst to my endeavoring to learn all that I could about oriental rugs, and indeed about the places and people that made them. Mr. Amindavar is intimately acquainted with how rugs are made, and indeed is able to perform numerous repairs to damaged and worn rugs. I have witnessed first-hand his abilities in this area over the years, and I can assure you that he has made many a customer extremely happy with his skills.

Over the years I have personally witnessed his superior selling skills with numerous customers at the rug gallery. I would often assist him in pulling back piles of rugs to display them to customers, and I would always be amazed at how quickly he was able to establish a rapport with a prospective customer. I have dealt with myriad salesmen in my personal life and professional career, and have yet to meet one that I would place above Mr. Amindavar with regard to friendliness, honesty, integrity, knowledge, and service.

It is my hope that you will thoughtfully consider Mr. Amindavar for whatever position he is seeking. You will find him to be very loyal to you, as he was with his former affiliation at the rug gallery. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require additional information. My wife, Tammy, is also available to give an excellent recommendation as well.

Sincerely,

Randy L. Roberts